

Merge two Contact Records

Originally submitted by Bruce Lehman: When a contact completes a form with a new e-mail address, they generate a completely new contact record in Eloqua, losing all history and lead scoring attributed to their old e-mail address. I would like to see a contact record merge feature that would combine the two records, and retain all the activity history for both. Bruce Lehman